

Fiscal Year 2025 Fee Update

City Planning Department Fee Increase – Effective July 1, 2024

Development Impact Fees (DIFs) are subject to annual increases in accordance with section 142.0640(c) of the San Diego Municipal Code. Development Impact Fees are due no later than prior to requesting a final inspection per San Diego Municipal Code Section 142.0640. Applicants may choose to pay at Building Permit issuance. The following increases will go into effect starting July 1, 2024:

- Citywide Development Impact Fees and Community-specific Development Impact Fees are increasing by 9.7% effective July 1, 2024.
- Development Impact Fees for Communities Identified as Facilities Benefit Assessment (FBA) Communities are subject to increase on July 1, 2024, based on the Fee Schedule in the respective Public Facilities Financing Plan.
- Regional Transportation Congestion Improvement Program Fee (RTCIP Fee) is increasing by 4.9%, effective July 1, 2024.

RTCIP	From	To	Effective Date
Per Dwelling Unit	$2,741.97	$2,875.06	July 1, 2024

The General Plan Maintenance Fee (GPMF) is adjusted each year on July 1 using the Consumer Price Index of all items in San Diego-Carlsbad, CA, as published by the United States Department of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics, in May of each year. The GPMF for Fiscal Year 2025 will be $548.

Hourly Project Review Fees are subject to change each year on July 1 per the updated position cost and indirect cost rate calculations as determined by the Department of Finance.

Historic Preservation Program Fees are charged for providing specialized services to property owners and the public, including processing of nominations for historic resource designation, processing of Mills Act agreement applications, monitoring of Mills Act contracts for compliance with conditions, and enforcement of Mills Act contract conditions when properties are found to be in violation. Resolution R-304533 authorizes adjustments to the fees to recover increases in
