

Kate Sessions Birthday Celebration

Saturday • November 12, 2011 • 11am-2pm

Courtesy Fairchild Tropical Botanic Garden Archive

Marston House Museum & Gardens
3525 Seventh Avenue

Celebrate the birthday of a much beloved pioneer horticulturist and one of the persons most responsible for turning Balboa Park into an urban oasis. Kate Sessions would be 154 years old this year and that calls for a party in her honor!

The first 50 guests will receive a free Floral Association tote bag with goodies inside!

The day's activities include

- Birthday Cake and lemonade!
- A brief history of Sessions' life and her efforts to plant trees in Balboa Park
- A special tour of the urban forest around the Marston House with Fausto Palafox
- Talk and walk to the Kate Sessions statue with Ranger Kim Duclo
- Discount tours of the historic Marston House and gardens
- The Geranium George Project will have the ever popular Kate Sessions Geranium for sale

Sponsored by San Diego Floral Association, Friends of Balboa Park & Save Our Heritage Organisation

