Grounds of La Jolla Historical Society, La Jolla CA

This Workshop is intended to be useful for a broad audience, ranging from architects and landscape architects to historic commissioners to city staff. It will provide information related to identification, definitions, documentation and assessment of cultural landscapes. Additionally, this workshop will provide an overview of the Historic American Landscapes Survey [HALS] as well as a review potential HALS sites and a summary of the various inventory and treatment typically prepared for a variety of cultural landscape documentation and treatment projects. Participants will have the opportunity to draft a HALS survey form on-site. The Workshop will use case studies of properties in California to provide examples of local cultural landscapes.

Part of this Workshop will be held outdoors and includes a walking tour of Irving Gill related properties and site-visit at Wisteria Cottage. Please check the weather forecast and wear comfortable shoes!

Topics Include:

- Cultural Landscape Elements: Roles & Relation to Historic Significance
- Landscape Case Studies
- Cultural Landscapes of the Local Area; Eras and Features
- Overview of HALS: Context, Rational, History, Structure
- On-site HALS Documentation
- Landscape Documentation Techniques for Historic Surveys & Districts

Speakers:

- Noel Vernon - Professor of Landscape Architecture, Cal Poly Pomona
- Vonn Marie May - Cultural Landscape Specialist
- Diane Kane, Ph.D., AICP - Architectural Historian
- Betty Vale - Landscape Coordinator, The Bishop's School and Wisteria Cottage
